

SAALED
NPO 013-241

SOUTHERN AFRICAN ASSOCIATION FOR LEARNING AND EDUCATIONAL DIFFERENCES

Helen Laas will be speaking on:

“Creating an inclusive classroom environment”

This presentation will be on easy, practical and accessible ways of adapting classroom structures and methodology to improve learning for all children, being mindful of those experiencing barriers to learning.

Date: Thursday 1st March 2012

Venue: Westridge High School,
189 Jan Smuts Highway, Mayville
(opposite the West Ridge tennis stadium)

Programme:

Tea and coffee will be served on arrival

14:30 – 15:00 Registration

15:00 – 17:00 Presentation by Helen Laas

Cost: SAALED members - R40.00pp

Non- SAALED Members - R60.00pp

Registration closes on Monday, 27th February 2012

Please note – Payment is to be done via internet or other banking.

Email proof of payment to saaledkzn@gmail.com or fax to 086 232 5497

FNB Banking details: Account name: SAALED- KZN (Reference : your name and school)

FNB branch code: 250 655

Account No: 623 4376 2234

CPD points have been applied for.

Helen Laas has a background in working with children in both mainstream and special school environments. She lectures in the field of inclusive education at Embury College in Musgrave. She holds a B.Ed foundation phase (cum Laude) and a B.Ed Honour (Ed Psych).

SAALED
NPO 013-241

SOUTHERN AFRICAN ASSOCIATION FOR LEARNING AND EDUCATIONAL DIFFERENCES

Helen believes that practical creativity in the classroom and making use of the available resources are the key to making inclusive education/teaching work. She inspires and supports undergraduate students and teachers in inclusive teaching practices, drawing on her wealth of experiences as a teacher, learner and mother.

Queries: Zama - 031 201 7832