Dear SAALED Members and Friends,

Review: Growing a Love for Language with Tayla Blaire

Our final webinar for 2024, presented by Tayla Blaire on October 22, was a resounding success. Tayla's engaging session on fostering a love for language captivated attendees, offering insightful strategies and practical advice to inspire language learning in the classroom. We are sincerely grateful to, Tayla, for sharing her passion and insight. This was a unique opportunity, especially for those who had missed Tayla's presentation at our June seminar, and we were thrilled to see such enthusiastic participation. A special thank you to everyone who joined us. This session truly highlighted the power of language to unlock creativity and connection in students, making for a fitting close to our webinar series this year.
