Learn from a leader in the field of Autism Spectrum Disorder

SAVE THE DATE

17 and 18 January 2017 – Workshops
20 January 2017 – Master Class

by Professor Tony Attwood

Tony is a clinical psychologist who has specialised in autism spectrum disorders since qualifying as a clinical psychologist in England in 1975. He currently works in his own private practice, and is also adjunct professor at Griffith University, Queensland and senior consultant at the Minds and Hearts clinic in Brisbane.

His book Asperger’s Syndrome – A Guide for Parents and Professionals has sold over 350,000 copies and has been translated into over 25 languages. The Complete Guide to Asperger’s Syndrome, as published in October 2006, is one of the primary textbooks on Asperger’s Syndrome. He has several subsequent books published by Jessica Kingsley Publishers, Future Horizons Inc. and Guilford Press.

Tony has been invited to be a keynote speaker at many International Conferences. He presents workshops and runs training courses for parents, professionals and individuals with Asperger’s Syndrome all over the world and is a prolific author of scientific papers and books on the subject.

He has worked with many thousands of individuals of all ages with Asperger’s Syndrome or Autism Spectrum Disorder. Professor Attwood will present in Johannesburg in January 2017 on the following topics:

- Making friends: strategies to improve social understanding and friendship skills;
- Managing feelings: CBT to manage anxiety, sadness and anger;
- Adolescent issues for teenagers with ASD;
- ASD in adults: Employment and relationships;
- Long term relationships for a person with ASD and his/her partner.

If you know, work with or parent a young person on the Autism Spectrum, mark these dates off in your 2017 diary: 17, 18, 20 January 2017!
