Wendy is a seasoned Psychologist who has over 20 years of experience. She is particularly interested in early identification and intervention of children with learning, emotional and behavioural difficulties. She completed her postgraduate study in psychology at the University of the Witwatersrand (1987 – 1990), and served 18 months internship at a remedial school in Johannesburg. She continued to work at the remedial school for a further four-and-a-half years before going into private practice. Over the years she has specialized in other areas for example, play therapy for children using a psycho-dynamic approach, group therapy with children and adolescents and Parent-infant therapy with mother, father and their under-five year old, to assist in their 'getting-together' as a family unit

Vicky is an experienced Sensory Integration and Neuro-Development trained therapist, who has also completed her basic and fellows training in DIR/Floor time, completing the course for professionals through Profectum in the USA. Vicky works through building a strong relationship with the child and family, carefully considering the unique individual makeup of the child and specifically adapting her interventions to the child using the DIR framework and her skills as an SI and NDT therapist. She has a special interest in working with children under 5 years of age, specifically those with relational and language difficulties.
